FLEECY STAPLE PEOPLE

Holding an Important Meeting at Atlanta.

GROWERS AND SPINNERS

And Hundreds of Other Individuals Are Assembled to Discuss Matters That Pertain to the Cultivation and the Manufacture of the Staple.

Atlanta, Oct. 7.—Men who grow cotton and men who manufacture it into cloths and other goods for the markets of the world met at the state capitol in Atlanta Monday in the international conference of cotton growers and manufacturers. During the three days' sessions of the conference questions of the utmost importance to growers and consumers will be discussed and action looked for that will radically change for the better the methods of handling and growing the great staple of the south.

Fully 500 delegates were present when President James R. Maccoll of Providence, R. I., called the meeting to order, former President Arthur Kuffler, of Vienna, Austria, and delegates from Great Britain, Germany, Belgium, France and Spain are present.

The bodies forming the international conference of the National Spinners' association, Farmers' Union, Southern Cotton association and Inter State Cotton Crushers' association were represented.

The morning session of the conference was taken up largely with addresses of welcome and responses and appointments of committees of two members from each organization, represented at the conference to nominate permanent officers and select chairmen and vice chairmen of sectional committees. It is in these sectional meetings that much of the actual work of the conference will be done. The body adopts the methods of state legislatures by referring matters to the committees.

In response to Governor Smith's address of welcome, C. W. Macara, chairman of the committee of the International Federation of Master Cotton Spinners and Manufacturers' association and president of the English Master Cotton Spinners' Federation and vice president of the international conference, responded. Mr. Macara warned the American cotton growers of impending disaster to their European trade if they advanced the price of cotton beyond a fair profit. He also denounced the American system of speculating on futures.

TWENTY-TWO ARE SLAIN.

Convicts Attack Guards and Many of Former Killed.

Tobolsk, Siberia, Oct. 7.—A gang of convicts, being escorted here from eastern Siberia, attacked the guards and wounded six. The latter fired on the convicts, killing twenty-two of them. The affair was one of the bloodiest of the kind ever taking place in this region.

ONE HUNDRED KILLED.

Chinese Boxers Sustain Great Losses at Canan Fu.

Kanchow Fu, Oct. 7.—For participation in the recent riots here the Chinese government, arrested and punished twenty rioters.

One hundred Boxers have been killed by the government troops at Canan Fu.

ROGERS REFUSED.

Said Wife Had Waited So Long That She Could Go.

Goshen, N. Y., Oct. 7.—A murder trial of more than passing interest began here Monday when Charles Henry Rogers was called to answer the charge of murdering Frederick and Willis Olnew, prosperous dairy farmers, who lived together, and the daughter of their housekeeper, Alice Ingerick. The defense is insanity, based on injuries received years ago by Rogers in a railroad accident.

Rogers' wife, who has been supporting herself and five little ones by day work, called at the lockup the other day for the first time to see her husband. "She has waited so long she can go," said Rogers.

BOTH ENGINES DEMOLISHED.

Also Mail, Express and Baggage Cars, and Two Fatalities.

Rocky Mount, N. C., Oct. 7.—The northbound Florida and West Indian Limited passenger train on the Atlantic Coast Line railway ran into an open switch and collided with an engine at South Rocky Mount. Engineer W. Boney of the passenger train was instantly killed and Postal Clerk T. T. Hill slightly injured. Although many passengers were thrown from their berths, none suffered injury. Both engines were completely demolished, as also were the mail, express and baggage cars.

WHEEL PLANT IS RUINED

Dreadful Results of Upsetting of Metal Pot.

FOUR DEAD, THIRTY HURT

Arms, Fingers and Ears Are Burned Off, Eyes Out, Legs Cooked to Crisp and Other Men Injured In Disaster That Is Awful.

Butler, Pa., Oct. 7.—An explosion caused by the upsetting of a metal pole in No. 1 cupola of the Standard Steel company here caused the death of four men, fatally injured twenty and seriously injured ten others. Most of the men are foreigners. The large wheel plant was demolished, causing a loss estimated at $100,000. The dead are: Nock Dorna, Nicholas Blottera, John Vloack and an unknown man.

The condition of the injured is pitiable. Although still alive, the features of the majority are mutilated beyond recognition. The hot metal was showered over them, causing horrible injuries. Arms, fingers and ears were burned off, while a number of the men had their eyes burned out.

Several men are in the hospital with their legs burned to a crisp. At midnight the physicians attending the injured said at least ten of the men would die.

The explosion was caused by the upsetting of a metal pole in the cupola, which contained 5,000 pounds of metal ready for casting. A span in the pot broke, allowing the liquid iron to spill over the wet sand. An explosion followed so quickly that none of the workmen in the building had a chance to escape. Streams of the burning metal poured on the workmen, some of whom were engulfed and literally cooked. Twenty men in the cupola had every thread blown off by the force of the explosion. Many were buried under the wreckage, and were not rescued for an hour after the catastrophe. Buildings in the city, from the force of the explosion, shivered as if shaken by an earthquake, and the people rushed from their homes panic-stricken. When flames shot from the burning car works fully 10,000 people rushed to the scene blocking streets and interfering with fire companies and ambulances. Twenty minutes after the accident fifteen doctors were on the scene and the wounded were carried into the office of the car company where they were cared for.

Through lack of room many of the injured compelled to lie for an hour on cots in street cars before it was possible to take them to the hospital, a mile and a half away. The company's office represented a frightful scene. Twenty men, nearly all of whom had been stripped of their clothing and their faces burned beyond recognition, were hurried there and provided with protection against the cold. As in every case of so terrible a nature, friends and relatives of the victims crowded the hospitals and street cars, and would have risked their lives at the burning plant in search of those they knew.

TERRIBLE MURDER.

Body of Little Girl Mutilated In Horrible Manner.

Camden, N. J., Oct. 7.—The murder of nine-year-old Ethel Evans or Marx of East Camden, whose mutilated body was found in a thicket not far from home, is a complete mystery, although the police arrested August Dongas in connection with the case. He is held for examination, together with Joseph Wood, sixteen years old.

Wood was arrested primarily because Mrs. Harry Marx, mother of the murdered girl, was wont to leave him in charge of her child while she was on shopping tours, and Ethel had said she was afraid of him. Wood denies knowledge of the crime.

Since the arrest of Wood the police say they have found a witness who says he saw him on Thursday in the brush near where the body was found, armed with a hatchet.

An autopsy performed by County Physician Jones shows that the child's head had been cut off with a hatchet. Her jaw had been broken on the left side, and there were several cuts over the eyes. In the opinion of the physicians the child had been maltreated after she had been felled by a blow on the head.

The Daily Eagle

Entered at the Postoffice in Bryan, Texas, as second class matter.

BY CARNES & WALLACE

BRYAN, TEXAS, OCT 8, 1907

Possibly the temperature continues high to keep company with prices.

The key that will unlock the Farmers' Union warehouses looks like 15 cents.

The Georgia law prohibits selling anything that has alcohol in it. Don't that include dictionaries?

The politicians and the speculators are extravagantly, prodigally liberal in giving advice to the farmers.

There is danger, great danger, in the "yellow peril," not of armed invasion but of clandestine immigration.

All the arguments in favor of 15-cent cotton may be condensed into two: It's worth it and the world is able to pay it.

The Atlanta conference of cotton growers and manufacturers is trying to win the game by knocking out the middle man.

In anticipation of a demand for ginger in the political campaign next year South-west Texas is planting largely of the Jamaica variety.

The Houston Chronicle credits a paragraph taken from the Eagle to the Brazos Star. No such luminary twinkles in the empyrean bounded by our horizon.

Apparently the attempt to use the Confederate veterans for political purposes has been abandoned. The Confederate soldier fought for principle, not for pelf.

A Pennsylvania woman left a million to a college on condition that athletics be forever interdicted. Of course the bequest was rejected; a college without athletics would die of stagnation.

John H. Kirby denies categorically that that he said he would rather see Texas go republican than to see Bryan elected president. It is gratifying to be assured that Mr. Kirby has not acquired the objectionable habit of slopping over.

A perfect woman would be a fine thing to set up on a pedestal as a model to point out to our wives, but when we think of her as a wife—what sort of a figure would the best of us make as the husband of a perfect woman?

It does little good to scold people about buying of mail order houses. Unless they can be convinced of the truth that they are injuring themselves by so doing they will continue the practice. This can best be done by judicious advertising.

METHODIST PIPE ORGAN.

Has Been Completed—Recital Friday Night by Prof. Case of North Texas Female College.

The handsome new pipe organ of the First Methodist Church has been completed, and in finish and tone has proven to be a very fine instrument, with tubular pneumatic action. The first opportunity of the public to hear this magnificent instrument will be on Friday night, when a recital will be given Prof. George E. Case, of the Conservatory of Music of the North Texas Female College of Sherman. Prof. Case is an organist and a singer as well, and will favor the audience with vocal numbers. There will also be local assistance on the program which is being prepared.

Admission, adults 25c; children 10 and 15c.

BIG RACE MEET AT DALLAS FAIR.

Indications are that the race meet this year will be one of the greatest events of its kind in the history of the South. Entries for the six running and six harness stakes exceed in number any meet heretofore—averaging twenty-six for the former and thirty-six for the latter in each race. Over four hundred horses are now stabled on the grounds and by October 10 the number will be close to one thousand. The fair management offers this year $50,000 in stakes and purses. The program calls for continuous racing during the thirteen week days of carnival with from five to seven running and three to five harness races each day. Some of the most noted racers in the United States and Canada will be on hand.

The Democratic Progressive League of New York has planned a tour of the state by William J. Bryan, the object being to demonstrate that he is the strongest presidential candidate. He has made it a condition of his acceptance that no contributions shall be accepted from corporations or trusts, and that the names of all contributors must be submitted to him for approval. A contrast this with Roosevelt's request of Harriman to raise a big campaign fund just before the last presidential election.

FARMERS' UNION RESOLUTIONS.

At the Reliance meeting of the Farmers' Union Friday the following resolutions were adopted, together with another outlined in the Eagle Saturday morning that if necessary enough cotton will be sold by the members of the Union to pay store accounts and the balance be held. The Eagle has also published the letter of President Neill to which reference is made below:

HOLDING RESOLUTIONS.

Whereas, we believe that the price of cotton should be made by cotton growers instead of cotton gamblers, and

Whereas, the Farmers Educational and Co-operative Union of America in convention assembled at Little Rock, Ark., set the minimum price of cotton at 15c per lb., basis middling, and

Whereas, we consider that a just and reasonable price in view of the shortage in the current crop, Therefore, be it resolved, first, that we will stand by the price fixed by the Union; second, that if necessary in order to enforce our decision, we will hold this season's cotton until next season; third, that in the event cotton does not reach the Farmers' Union minimum before planting time, that we recommend that the acreage be reduced 25 per cent throughout the cotton belt; and

Be it further resolved, that we are determined to either control the price of cotton or discontinue its production altogether; and

Be it further resolved, that we request each and every County Union in the cotton belt to pass similar resolutions, and absolutely to live up to them.

NEILL ENDORSED.

Whereas, President D. J. Neill and all of the officials of the Farmers Union have adopted a broad and liberal policy toward the business world; and

Whereas, President Neill has issued a statement to all of the papers setting forth a broad and liberal policy calculated to bring to our support all of the legitimate interests of the South.

Therefore be it resolved, that we do heartily commend and endorse the action of our officials and the proclamation of our president.

ARM PULLED IN TWO.

Tendons and Muscles Are Torn Up to Shoulder.

Beaumont, Oct. 7.—W. H. Richardson, an elderly man, was brought to the Sisters' hospital from Merrville, La., where he was frightfully injured in the sawmill of the Sabine Valley Lumber company. Mr. Richardson was employed as engineer. While engaged in his duties a hand became entangled in a pulley and he was jerked from his feet and was swung three times around the shaft and his arm was pulled entirely in two near the elbow.

The severing of the arm was all that saved his life.

The accident was unspeakably painful, as the arm was fairly pulled in twain, the tendons and muscles being torn from the arm as far as the shoulder. One of his legs was also broken in three places, and he was otherwise bruised and injured. It is believed that he will recover, the injuries not being of a fatal nature, but the shock was terrible.

BRICK FRACTURES SKULL.

T. W. Minns of Alvin Dies In Galveston Hospital.

Galveston, Oct. 7.—T. W. Minns of Alvin was taken to the Sealy hospital suffering from a badly fractured skull having been hit with a brick. After lying in an unconscious condition for some hours he died. Doda Massa, who is alleged to have assaulted Minns, and who is charged with murder, has not been apprehended. As soon as the police were informed of the assault every avenue of escape from the city was blocked, but up to 2 o'clock Sunday morning no trace of Massa had been discovered. The assault took place in the rear of a saloon at 2108 Market street.

State Recovers Penalties In the Livestock Suits.

Austin, Oct. 7.—Adjutant General Newton and Captain J. H. Rogers of the state ranger force returned from Nacogdoches, where they have been in attendance at the trial of Doc Bailey, the negro convicted of killing D. Owen. General Newton issued a statement in which he denies that ex-Sheriff Spradley of Nacogdoches county was roughly handled by rangers without cause as appeared in some of the newspapers. He also denied that a ranger was knocked down. Bailey was safely landed in the Rusk penitentiary pending the date fixed for his execution. General Newton said the same course would be again be-resorted to if the occasion demanded it.

W. C. Wilkins of Austin, one of the state bank examiners, has resigned his position on account of ill health. Bank Superintendent Love said he would announce the appointment of a successor to Mr. Wilkins Oct. 12.

Supreme court and court of civil appeals met Monday for fall term. The court of civil appeals transacted no business. In the supreme court mandamus proceedings of J. C. Griner vs.
B. C. Thomas, district judge et al.
from Valverde county, involving county judgeship of that county, was submitted on oral argument.

The condition of Judge A. W. Terrell, who is critically ill at Seton infirm, was reported somewhat improved Monday morning. He stood another operation Sunday.

A settlement was reached in the anti-trust cases of the state against the Fort Worth Livestock Exchange and various commission firms, which has been pending in the Twenty-sixth district court. According to settlement judgment is rendered in favor of the state for penalties aggregating $17,500—one-half under the anti-trust act of 1899 and the other half under the act of 1903. Judgment also is for cancellation and forfeiture of charter of Fort Worth Livestock Exchange.
Also for perpetual injunction restrain-ing the exchange from doing business in Texas in the future. The injunction also applies to all other defendants, restraining these commission companies from enforcing any of the rules of the exchange. The state reserves the right to bring suit for any violation of anti-trust laws not specifically pleaded in petition of the exchange.

The Texas and Pacific and several other railroads have instituted suit in the Twenty-third district court against the railroad commission for writ of injunction to enjoin the commission from enforcing its order requiring uniform system of bookkeeping.

WIDOW WINS.

Mrs. Ford Gets Verdict and Full Face Value of Policy.

San Marcos, Tex., Oct. 7.—Mrs.
Ford, the widow of the Owen Ford, who was postmaster here several years before his death, was granted the face of the insurance policy held by the deceased in the Mutual Life Insurance company of New York. District Judge L. W. Moore rendered the decision. The company resisted the payment of the policy on the ground that the death of Ford was suicidal.
The policy was for $2,000. In ruling on a demurrer this morning Judge Moore construed for the first time, in this state, an insurance statute passed some years ago by the Texas legislature. His ruling attracted a great deal of attention by the local bar as well as the visiting counsel.

and a severe shaking up, which, owing to his advanced age, may confine the judge to his room some time.

tion prohibiting H. Limburger, Sr., ing liquor. The Law and Order league asked the injunction on the ground that Limburger had not taken out his tion of this kind to be granted.

HE IS SIMPLY A STEWARD

Rev. Dr. MacArthur Quotes a Remark of Mr. Rockefeller.

New York, Oct. 7.—John D. Rockefeller's private conception of himself, that he is only the steward of Standard Oil company wealth and responsible to God alone for his stewardship, was quoted Sunday by Rev. Dr. Robert S.
MacArthur, pastor of Cavalry Baptist church, before the young people's class. Dr. MacArthur said that a few years ago some one asked Mr. Rockefeller privately why it was, since he had such a tremendous fortune and his tastes simple he could not possibly use one-tenth of his income, that he did not retire. Mr. Rockefeller then made this reply, which he did not intend to be made public, and which gives the attitude of his mind never before appreciated by the public: "I am the trustee of the property of others," he said. "Through the providence of God, committed to my care, I am the steward of the vast interests belonging in great part to widows and orphans, and others actually or relatively poor."
"For this holding I am responsible to God. Were I give up my interests in the Standard Oil company I would imperil the interests of these people. According to popular superstition my withdrawal would hurt the company's business. Therefore, I feel it my duty to God and to the people whose money is invested in my company to continue active in its welfare."

Dr. MacArthur said the quotation is authentic and he intimated that he himself was one who heard Mr. Rockefeller so characterize his position in the world.

HIGHER SALARIES.

This Question a Grave One In Methodist Episcopal Church.

Chicago, Oct. 7.—Reports received by the Tribune from ten of the Methodist Episcopal conferences in Illinois and neighboring states shows that the question of higher salary for the average minister of that church has reached a crisis. The generally expressed opinion is that religious work soon will suffer for lack of preachers unless salaries are raised. In many of the conferences just held was an exodus of preachers from the pulpit to enter business life. The higher salaries movement was discussed and advocated at practically all the conferences.

Salaries have been advanced about $100 each during the last four years, but this increase, which has not kept pace with the increase in cost of living, has failed to stem the ministerial stampede into business life.

COLLIER REPORTS.

Negro Bear Hunter Brings With Him
Kennel of Fine Dogs.

Stamboul, La., Oct. 7.—Holt Collier, the champion Mississippi negro bear hunter, reported at the presidential camp early Monday, ready for business in the canebrakes. He came down from Greenville and brought with him a fine kennel of dogs, all of which were yelping as if ready for work in the jungle.

The first report of a killing since the arrival of the presidential party was that of Ben Lilley, Collier's white rival, had succeeded in killing a fine buck late Saturday afternoon soon after he made his appearance. Consequently, the president dined sumptuously Sunday on a choice cut of venison.

MODERN REVIVALISM.

Services Held in a Large Tent Sealed Heated by Steam.

Chicago, Oct. 7.—Spiritual revival-ism of the up-to-date sort in a great floored, sealed and steam heated tent was inaugurated Sunday at North Clark and Chestnut streets. Rev. R.
A. Torrey preached two stirring sermons to congregations, each of which numbered more than 5,000 persons, the seating capacity of the tent. At the close of his discourse Dr. Torrey announced that the big tent, which has cost $18,000 to erect and equip, will be the scene of daily meetings until the latter part of November.

THAW'S SECOND TRIAL.

Jerome, Littleton and Judge Agree Upon Dec. 2.

New York, Oct. 7.—Harry K. Thaw's second trial for killing Stanford White will begin Dec. 2. This agreement was reached between District Attorney Jerome, Martin W. Littleton, counsel for Thaw, and Justice Dowling of the supreme court Monday. Mr. Littleton wanted the date fixed for Nov. 1, but Mr. Jerome opposed this and offered Dec. 2, which was selected.
